

BECKY SWINGS WITH STYLE

Becky Want got 'in the mood' when hosting Sing Swing at Manchester's Bridgewater Hall wearing an exclusive gown, with a sexy twist reminiscent of the Swing era, created by Northwest couturier, Yvonne Gillon.

As Becky explained,

"Sing Live UK is a unique concept bringing together ordinary people from all different backgrounds, ages and experience to prepare them to perform in a huge musical extravaganza, hence Sing Swing. Yvonne assured me that she could create something equally unique for me to host the event and match the occasion.

The design is two-piece styled on a Sex and the City theme - the red satin boned fitted bodice is teamed with a multiple layer short, sexy skirt in a combination of red satin, red and black tulle.

Yvonne commented,

"Becky wanted a gown to reflect the swing theme of the evening, something sexy and glamorous but without the almost naked look! This gown is so feminine, complementing Becky's lovely figure and colouring superbly."

Becky's reaction,

"I just absolutely loved it and couldn't wait to show everyone how glamorous I looked."
